Takes a long time

2009 – EDL ‘Angel’

‘Fransen recruitment’ 2011 – 2013
By 2011 Jayda no longer worked at Martin Wilkinson solicitor and so couldn’t have continued her correspondence course in law.
| Starts claiming to have a law degree | 2013 – Deputy leader Britain First | When did she get the time to get a law degree via a lengthy correspondence process that’s only possible while she was working for Martin Wilkinson solicitor (so between 2007 and 2011). |
Do the maths... This was current in 2007

1993 to date - OVER 15 YEARS IN PRACTICE AT FOREST HILL
1978 to date - OVER 20 YEARS QUALIFIED AS A SOLICITOR
Routes to qualifying

Candidates with no prior degree

If you already work in a legal office, you can join the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives (CILEx), which is the governing body for chartered legal executives. You must pass examinations to qualify first as a member and later as a fellow. Qualifying by this route takes a long time, is demanding and academically challenging, and requires that you enter and maintain CILEx-approved legal employment. The CILEx examination framework enables you to fulfil the requirements of the academic stage of training, including the foundations of legal knowledge.

If you want to know more about the structure and availability of training via this route, see the CILEx website, or contact the organisation by email: info@ilex.org.uk or telephone 01234 841000.
